

Songbook #1: Jolly Jackers - Whiskey (Sobriety, 2015)

Verse 1:

G C G
You left me again, but this time for good
G C D
The daytime ran fast, but the nights just stood
G C G
So I went to a bar near my home
G D G
And I met this guy, Jamie, a decent fellow

Verse 1 with faster guitar beat

Chorus:

G C D
Come here, my friend, you look so sad
G Am D
Surely I can help you make your bad times pass
G C Am
Come here, my friend, you look so sad
G D G
Just drink it up and you'll forget!

Verse 2:

G C G
The next day I met Jamie again
G C D
But this time he brought along Johnny, his friend.
G C G
I started to talk about how life's hard on me
G D G
These two guys were quietly listening to me. They said:

Chorus

Verse 3:

G C G
The next day I met Jamie again
G C D
But this time he brought along a lot of his friends
G C G
Johnny and Jim and Jack joined the gang
G D G
And we became a bunch of good friends. They said:

Chorus

Verse 4:

G C D
So we've been together since I don't know when
G C D
I do the talking and they just listen.
G C G
I lost my job, too, but I have these friends.
G D G
They surely can make my bad times pass! They say:

Chorus x2
